

Step into a different world at Hops & Barleys; one reminiscent of an old tavern whose walls house the memories made through years gone by.

Hops & Barleys is full of history- the building itself has an interesting story, while the interior of the restaurant is decorated with local memorabilia. An old piano sits in the dining room, and the walls are adorned with portraits and old advertisements.

The atmosphere is mysterious and old, yet comforting. A place where so many great times have been had, you'll feel at ease joining the ranks. Stop by for a visit to see the unique marks of character and history throughout the restaurant, and read the full Hops & Barleys story here.
